Monday Morning Notes from Bishop Hyed

Blessings on Monday!

It was wonderful to gather for diocesan convention this weekend.

Especially after the tumult of last week's election, it was good to have time together as a whole Diocese.

- This week we'll report more about all that we did together. Today I wanted to share key points for our mission in the year ahead.

We're beginning a Year of Purpose- lives of prayer, communities of renewal, and a pastoral fabric focused on you.

We have a focus on local communities, we've set Mission Priorities, we've adopted a 2025 budget that moves our Priorities forward, and we're learning the seeds & signs of renewal.

Now we've got to live what we've conceived.

- We change our pastoral fabric (systems) through engagement— by listening to each other, aligning our leadership & governance bodies, and structuring our diocesan staff. We have to re-weave our fabric and manage well.

In all that we do, we seek & serve Christ in everyone around us. Everyday, everywhere, we continue to experience Jesus' Incarnation through the presence of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit moves at ground level— and we are Incarnate Word and Embodied Hope.

Grace & Peace,
